

The Heart of Healing

Your Statement of Being for November 2023

Today: I gratefully embrace this grand and glorious high Truth: I am that which Thou art, and Thou art that which I AM. I dance the dance of divine creation, and every thought I think is inspired by light, love and infinite possibility. The wholeness of Spirit defines me, animates me, and sustains me as I move confidently in the direction of my deepest and most cherished dreams. I am Spirit's perfect vehicle for the good I desire, and I live in the quantum field of yes! And so it is, AMEN!
