

The Heart of Healing

Your Statement of Being for August 2023

Today: My trust is in Universal Good. The Power and Presence which birthed all life, birthed me for this perfect time and this sacred place. I loose and let go any and all ideas which do not elevate me, because I am a high-altitude and high attitude spiritual being! I choose to celebrate life. I choose to celebrate what's possible. And I choose to celebrate each sweet moment, knowing that I am always creating the next perfect moment.

And so it is, AMEN!
