

“SONG 23”

The 23rd Psalm: A Metaphysical Interpretation
by Rev Skip Jennings

Mother, Father, God is my Guide, and All My Needs are met.
They invite me to rest my mind in a field of plentitude and infinite possibilities.

My inner soul is at peace like the still waters after a raging storm.

I am restored within my mind;

My spirit is renewed,

And I am inspired to take Right Action in the name of LOVE!

As I walk, jog, and run through the valley of my Dark Night,
I will fear not.

I will not doubt the omnipresence no matter how Life is “Lifing.”

My devotion, my dedication, my discipline are the source of my comfort.

There is an opportunity to FELLOWSHIP with those who hate me because of how I express LOVE in my unique, fabulous way.

I will break bread with them.

BECAUSE I am the Christed one, Enlightened with LOVE.

Anointed to answer the CALL.

I am THE IAM filled with infinite prosperity and JOY.

Gratefully, I accept all the blessings I am willing to receive.

The Good and Friendly UNIVERSE is my life today and forever. I can never be separated from the “All Expanding Good of Heaven.” And So it IS
